

M1: double dissociation — each signal responds to its own axis only

